CONTEMPORARY BALLET

CELIA FUSHILLE / ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

DEAR FRIENDS,

Greetings of the season!

Here at Smuin, preparing our holiday program is always a good reminder of the many reasons we have to be grateful. At the top of that list is our delight in having you join us in the theater!

Smuin's The Christmas Ballet has become a holiday tradition for many. Whether this is your first time seeing The Christmas Ballet or you've seen all 28 editions, we hope you will revel in the romance, beauty, and humor that have been hallmarks since Michael Smuin's 1995 production opened.

In addition to favorite dances from years past, we have two premieres to unwrap for you. In Act I, Smuin alumna Nicole Haskins returns to choreograph a soulful pas de deux that is a prayer for Ukraine. Amy Seiwert's new ensemble piece in Act II is a lively holiday romp. From pristine classical ballet to jazz and tap set to holiday classics, we hope The Christmas Ballet is just what you've wished for this season.

From all of us at Smuin, we wish you a joyous season and a new year filled with good health and every blessing.

Enjoy the performance!

THE CHRISTMAS BALLET LGBTQ+ NIGHT

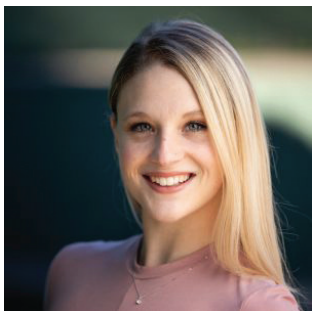

DECEMBER 20, 7:30 PM - Smuin's spectacular San Francisco holiday tradition, The Christmas Ballet LGBTQ+ Night, returns with fizz! (Cue cork pop, please!) Special guest star Lady Camden, the alter ego of Rex Wheeler, hosts the evening and steps into the red-hot heels of the iconic role "Santa Baby." Every ticket purchased makes a donation to Project Open Hand, founded in 1985 to feed people with HIV/AIDS, providing nutritious meals with love to our sick and vulnerable neighbors in San Francisco and Oakland.

TESSA BARBOUR | CHOREOGRAPHER

Tessa Barbour began her choreographic endeavors during her first season with Smuin in 2015. Since then Barbour has created a multitude of works for Smuin's Choreography Showcase, The Christmas Ballet and virtual dance films, showcasing her versatility in tap and neoclassical ballet. She has also created ballet and jazz pieces on her students at Marin Dance Theatre. In 2021, Jettison Creative invited Barbour to be their first artist in residence as director and choreographer of a short film project. Barbour looks forward to future opportunities as she develops her choreographic skills, voice and style.

ERICA FELSCH | CHOREOGRAPHER

Erica Felsch began her professional training at North Carolina School of the Arts, and went on to attend the pre-professional program at San Francisco Ballet. She has performed with Colorado Ballet, Madison Ballet, Nova Ballet, North Carolina School of the Arts Summer Performance Series, Sierra Nevada Ballet, and Ballet Arizona. Erica was featured in commercials, print ads, and an episode of Disney's "Shake It Up". She has originated roles in world premieres by Adam Houghland, Helen Pickett, Val Caniparoli and Garrett Ammon, and performed pieces by Michael Smuin, Jiří Kylián, Trey McIntyre, Darrell Moultrie, and many more.

NICOLE HASKINS | CHOREOGRAPHER

Nicole Haskins, originally from Venice Beach, California, danced professionally with Sacramento Ballet, Washington Ballet, and Smuin Contemporary Ballet, retiring in 2019. Her choreographic career also flourished, including commissions for Sacramento Ballet, Richmond Ballet, Smuin Contemporary Ballet, Dayton Ballet, and Oregon Ballet Theatre. Her choreography has been presented at the Los Angeles Dance Invitational, the McCallum Theater's Dancing Under The Stars Choreographic Competition, and regional festivals. She was one of the 2017 winners of Oregon Ballet Theatre's Choreography XX competition, participated in the New York Choreographic Institute, receiving the Institute's Fellowship Grant in 2011 and the Institute's Commission Initiative in 2017. Haskins has recently returned to the Bay Area where she's teaching at several studios.

MICHAEL OESCH | LIGHTING DESIGNER

Michael is a professional lighting designer for dance, theatre, operas, and musicals. Since joining Smuin in 2004, he has designed the lighting for The Christmas Ballet, The Turntable, Be Here Now, The Poetry of Being, Tutto Eccetto il Lavandino, Madness, Rack, & Honey, Oh, Inverted World, and Fly Me to the Moon, as well as many more Smuin Ballet productions. He also designs lighting for other companies throughout the Bay area, where his designs have won a Theatre Bay Area award, Shelly Award, and have been nominated for BATCC Awards, and an Isadora Duncan Award. See more of his work at Michaeloesch.com

DOUGLAS SCHMIDT | SCENIC DESIGNER

For the past 50 years, Schmidt has designed for film, television, arena, and theme park presentations, as well as more than 200 productions for Broadway, Off Broadway, regional theaters, and major opera companies in the U.S. and Europe. His Broadway credits include the original productions of Grease and Frankenstein. In 2015, he received the United States Institute for Theatre Technology Award for Distinguished Achievement in Scene Design and The Robert L.B. Tobin Award for Sustained Excellence in Theatrical Design.

JANE HOPE REHM | CHOREOGRAPHER

Jane Hope Rehm (she, her) native to Perrysburg, Ohio received her training at the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre and San Francisco Ballet School. Rehm joined Ballet Memphis in 2001, where she both danced and began her choreographic pursuits. She went on to join Smuin Ballet in 2010, and was featured in works by Jiří Kylián, Trey McIntyre, Val Caniparoli, Helen Pickett, and Amy Seiwert. While at Smuin, she had the opportunity to create new choreographic works in the Choreography Showcase and The Christmas Ballet. Jane finished her career dancing for Hubbard Street Dance Chicago, Post:Ballet, and Julia Adam Dance. She now lives in west Sonoma County, and is grateful for any time spent in Smuin company – past, present and future.

AMY SEIWERT | CHOREOGRAPHER

Amy Seiwert worked with her mentor Michael Smuin for eight of her nine years as a dancer with Smuin. As the San Francisco Guardian wrote, "She quite possibly is the Bay Area's most original dance thinker." Named one of "25 to Watch" by Dance Magazine, her first full evening of choreography was named one of the "Top 10" dance events of 2007 by the San Francisco Chronicle. Her work is in the repertory of Washington, Atlanta, Oakland, Sacramento, Colorado, Louisville, Cincinnati, Carolina, Oklahoma City, Dayton, Milwaukee, and American Repertory Ballets, as well as Smuin, BalletMet, AXIS Dance, Robert Moses' KIN, and Ballet Austin.

REX WHEELER | CHOREOGRAPHER

Rex Wheeler, AKA Lady Camden, is originally from London, England, and trained at the Royal Ballet School and Elmhurst School for Dance. After dancing with Birmingham Royal Ballet as a student, he performed with Slovak National Ballet and Sacramento Ballet before dancing with Smuin from 2015-2018. A San Francisco-based choreographer and a founding member of Capital Dance Project, Wheeler has created works for many organizations across the country including Sacramento Ballet, Richmond Ballet, the New York Choreographic Institute, and Smuin Contemporary Ballet.

SANDRA WOODALL | COSTUME DESIGNER

Sandra Woodall has contributed scenic and costume designs to San Francisco Ballet, Frankfurt Ballet, Stuttgart Ballet, Bolshoi Ballet, National Ballet companies of Finland, Georgia and Norway, State Opera Ballet of Austria, Dance Theatre of Harlem, Royal Winnipeg Ballet, Houston Ballet, Hubbard Street Dance, and Singapore Dance Theatre, among others. Recent productions include visual design of Winter Journey (Beijing), written by Wan Fang, director, Stan Lai; Camino Real (Atlanta Ballet) choreographed by Helen Pickett; and Be Here Now, choreographed by Trey McIntyre for Smuin.

MICHAEL SMUIN | FOUNDER & CHOREOGRAPHER

An American master, the late Michael Smuin began his career as a dancer performing with San Francisco Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, and on Broadway. A Tony and Emmy award-winning choreographer, Smuin brought a signature style to his work on stage, in film, and on television. A maverick, he fearlessly blended the theatrical with classical and popular styles, combining elements drawn from his vast stage experience. Smuin's works continue to dazzle and entertain contemporary audiences. His company, Smuin, was founded in 1994 to showcase his creative versatility and unique vision. The Company maintains his legacy today.

CELIA FUSHILLE | ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

As Artistic Director of Smuin Contemporary Ballet since 2007, Celia Fushille has been leading the artistic vision of the Company and increasing its reputation as San Francisco's premier contemporary ballet company. A founding member of Smuin, during her 25-year performing career, Fushille appeared on stages in the U.S. and Europe, on television, and in film. In addition to maintaining Michael Smuin's legacy, throughout her 15 years as Artistic Director, she has commissioned more than 20 premieres and added the work of 15 choreographers new to the Smuin audience. From 2008-2014, Fushille also served as Executive Director of the Company. In 2021 Fushille was invited to become a Trustee of the Smuin Board. She holds a BA degree (summa cum laude) from Saint Mary's College of California.

LORI LAQUA | MANAGING DIRECTOR

Lori Laqua brings 30+ years of experience to her role as Managing Director of Smuin Contemporary Ballet. Laqua oversaw the renovation of Smuin Center for Dance, the organization's permanent home, which joined the rehearsal studios and administrative offices under one roof for the first time. Laqua previously served as project manager for the design and construction of the ODC Dance Commons and the ODC Theater during her 20 years there. She is especially pleased to have kept Smuin dancing during the pandemic having utilized the CARES Act and grant programs to help retain employees and to present programming on new platforms. Laqua holds a PhD (ABD) and MArch in Architectural History from the University of Virginia, a MA in Art History from the University of Missouri-Columbia, and a BA in History and Art History from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Laqua joined Smuin in 2017.

JO ELLEN ARNTZ | COMPANY MANAGER & WARDROBE

Jo Ellen Arntz moved to San Francisco after receiving her BFA in dance from Creighton University. She danced with San Francisco Ballet from 1981-1991 and has taught dance in the Bay Area since 1977. She began at Smuin as Wardrobe Supervisor in 1996 and became Company Manager shortly thereafter. Working with Michael Smuin at San Francisco Ballet and later his own company prepared her for the multiple hats she wears in the organization today.

AMY LONDON | BALLET MASTER & EDUCATION PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Amy London trained in Albuquerque, New Mexico, with Karen Alwin and Shauna Bereska. She danced with Hartford Ballet, Diablo Ballet, and Smuin. Her favorite Smuin roles included: The Eternal Idol, Q.a.V., and Hearts Suite. She has served on faculty for schools throughout the Bay Area and as Artistic Coordinator at Marin Ballet, where she has choreographed more than 20 works. As Ballet Master, she enjoys preserving Michael Smuin's legacy, as well as being the caretaker of the works of Val Caniparoli, Trey McIntyre, Amy Seiwert, Ma Cong, Helen Pickett, Adam Hougland, Choo-San Goh, and Jiří Kylián.

KATHRYN T GRAHAM | PRODUCTION DIRECTOR

KT Graham joined Smuin in 1997 after working as Production Stage Manager and Lighting Designer for Lewitzky Dance Company in Los Angeles, as well as Technical & Lighting Director for Washington Ballet in Washington, D.C., with whom she toured extensively both nationally and internationally. She also engages in freelance projects and has particularly enjoyed serving as Production Stage Manager for Amy Seiwert's Imagery, Dances from the Heart benefits for The Richmond/Ermet AIDS Foundation, and for the National Dance USA showcase in 2012.

WITH OUR THANKS

Smuin is deeply grateful to the following individuals and organizations for their generosity. It is through their support that we are able to create innovative works and share the beauty of dance. This list acknowledges contributions made between August 1, 2021–October 24, 2022.

We've made every effort to ensure that our donor list is accurate. Please contact Coral Bell, Development Operations Manager at cbell@smuinballet.org or 415-556-5000, Ext. 104 with corrections.
